Couple Who Lost Baby In Shooting: Terrorists 'Won't Break Us'

By Yoni Yalon and Lilach Shoval

Amichai and Shira Leib-Raz were injured in a drive-by shooting by a Palestinian terrorist at a bus stop outside of the Jewish community of Ofra on Dec. 9, 2018. Shira, 30 weeks pregnant, lost the baby four days later after an emergency C-section at Sheva Zedek Medical Center in Jerusalem.

A week after Shira Leib-Raz and her husband, Amichai, were wounded in a shooting north of Jerusalem, resulting in the premature birth of their son and his eventual death, the couple vowed not to let the terrorists win.

Wounded-in-head and helped by family members, the two thanked the public for the outpouring of support over the past several days.

"We want to thank God for performing miracles," said Amichai. "My wife is sitting next to me, and I myself was hit by three bullets in the leg, and I'm walking. I will walk one day. I want to thank our families, who have been at our side all this time, giving us all the help they can. I want to thank the
